Appeal from the United States
District Court for the Western District of Arkansas.

[UNPUBLISHED]

Submitted: June 15, 1999

Filed: June 21, 1999

Before BOWMAN, HEANEY, and FAGG, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Anthony Carniglia appeals his conviction for aiding and abetting a second-degree murder. Carniglia contends the district court should have granted his motions for acquittal because a reasonably minded jury could not find him guilty of aiding and abetting the charged offense. Having carefully reviewed the record, we conclude Carniglia's contention is without merit. We also conclude that an extended discussion of the fact-intensive issue presented by this appeal will serve no useful purpose. We thus affirm Carniglia's conviction. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.

CLERK, U.S. COURT OF APPEALS, EIGHTH CIRCUIT.
